As regards the transactions with an f/c clause, the f/c price of the service, which is then converted to euros using the official sale exchange rate of OTP banka d.d., applicable on the day of provision of the service, is taken as the basis, except in cases of guarantee transactions to which the official sale exchange rate of OTP banka d.d., applicable on the day of provision of the service, shall apply. The Bank will execute international orders, given by any customer, in accordance with the General Operating Terms and Conditions of the Bank, whereas related fees will be charged and collected in accordance herewith.
