

Excerpt from the Decision on the fees charged for payment services to nonconsumers

Applicable as of February 1, 2024

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- OTP banka dioničko društvo (hereinafter the Bank) collects fees for the services it provides, in accordance with the provisions hereof (hereinafter the Decision).
 Apart from this Decision, the applicable Policy of adjustment of nominal interest rates and fees in retail operations shall also apply to retail operations.
- 2. Fees are charged to customers for the services provided, unless regulated otherwise in an agreement concluded by and between the relevant customer and thee Bank.
- 3. The Bank shall charge the applicable fee along with any actual costs it incurs during the provision of the service.

Actual costs shall be:

- 3.1. Postage charged for express deliveries and air mail, deliveries made using special services, postage charged for various parcels and costs of transport,
- 3.2. Commissions and the fees charged by other domestic and international financial institutions, incurred during the provisions of the relevant service,
- 3.3. Legal fees, court expenses, protest, bill claim, discharge, etc.
- 3.4. Other actual costs as determined by the competent senior director or the Board of the Bank.
- 4. Fees for the services provided are charged and collected in the currency of the transaction.
- 5. Fees charged for international transactions the Bank carries out for customers in the country, are calculated and collected in EUR. As regards international transactions, the f/c price of the service, which is then converted to euros using the official sale exchange rate of OTP Banka d.d., applicable on the day of provision of the service, is taken as the basis. As regards the transactions with an f/c clause, the f/c price of the service, which is then converted to euros using the official sale exchange rate of OTP banka d.d., applicable on the day of provision of the service, is taken as the basis, except in cases of guarantee transactions to which the official sale exchange rate of OTP banka d.d., applicable on the day of provision of the service, shall apply. The Bank will execute international orders, given by any customer, in accordance with the General Operating Terms and Conditions of the Bank, whereas related fees will be charged and collected in accordance herewith.
- 6. Claims of the Bank under fees shall fall due on the day specified on the calculation, agreement, debit records, etc.
- 7. Due outstanding claims from item 1 hereof shall be subject to penalty interest charged by the Bank, in accordance with the Decision on Interest, from the day of debiting to the date of settlement.
- 8. The Bank shall charge all the commissions and costs, which are calculated by the international correspondent, to the principal.
- 9. The fees charged for the services provided under the Decision are the lowest fees. The Bank may set a higher or a lower fee, depending on the risk of the transaction, operating costs, and the amount of such a fee on the market.
- 10. By the entry into force hereof, the Decision shall apply to all the ongoing transactions that are subject to this Decision, noting that, where a pricing range is specified, the upper limit shall apply unless agreed otherwise.
